

PEER SUPPORT & MENTORING GUIDE

DIRECTIONS

Having a peer or more experienced mentor walking beside us in church leadership can be an excellent way to grow and stay healthy in leadership. To that end, we have developed this document for you to consider your needs in this area and if/how 360 Wellness might assist you.

Below are some questions to help you identify your mentoring needs and what you may be looking for in peer or mentor support. After reviewing this document, we encourage you to contact a brother(s) and have an initial conversation about potential options for connecting on the relevant matters.

1. ARE YOU SEEKING MENTOR SUPPORT FOR LOGISTICAL AND PRACTICAL MATTERS?

- Do you need a mentor or peer to meet with periodically for accountability in addressing specific areas of challenge?
- Do you and your wife need a mentor or peer couple with whom to share challenges of emotional health, marriage, and family for the purpose of encouragement and support?

3. HOW WOULD YOU DESCRIBE YOUR LEVEL (OR RANGE) OF STRESS?
